

MAPLE RIVER MIGRATION TOUR

at Maple River State Game Area

North of St. John's, MI

Saturday, March 30 • 9 a.m. to noon

Sponsored by Ducks Unlimited

Co-sponsored by Michigan Department of Natural Resources, Michigan United Conservation Clubs, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Pheasants Forever, MI Birds and Maple River Wildlife Association.

Join waterfowl experts and enthusiasts at Maple River State Game Area as we watch the skies during spring migration. Ducks Unlimited and the Michigan Department of Natural Resources have conserved nearly 800 acres here at this vital migration route since 2011. Take a self-guided tour of this conservation success story.

Don't miss:

- Waterfowl experts throughout game area talking about habitat and waterfowl
- Enjoy hands-on exhibits and learn about local conservation, outdoors opportunities

For details, contact

Steve Wyckoff at (616) 446-0555

or visit www.ducks.org/Michigan

